

Street Dreams

Hollywood Undead

Again in the night we go into the world unknown
Just let us go
I Know that I'm breathing slow, inhaling smoke, I just awoke
A bottle of pills I'm choking down with dancing demons all around
But I'm hearing sounds, and I know I'm hearing voices now With all the buildings crashing down, it's Armageddon again
I'll drink the poison from the ground and make a toast to the end
For all the kids and all the ones and even some Who've just begun to feel the pain
'Cause they can't stand to stay away I see the streets burn every time I fall asleep
I'm losing all my sanity
I can't hide from the voice that speaks inside of me I saw you walk into a room
I saw a face I thought I knew
And all along it was true, It was me
It wasn't you I asked myself if it was the truth,
A guilty conscience isn't proof,
A finger print well what's that do,
Cause gasoline can burn that too So hide your knives and save yourself,
It's just you there's no one else ,
Will I change, The time will tell,
Why can't I dream? What is this Hell?, So maybe I should stop this time, and draw the line,
And see the light,
But it's too late I can't this time,
I've lost my mind, so say goodnight I see the streets burn every time I fall asleep,
I'm losing all my sanity,
I can't hide from the voice that speaks inside of me I see the streets burn along with all my memories,
I'm losing all my sanity,
I can't hide from the voice that speaks inside of me I lay my head down would you admire,
The way I can close my eyes tonight,
And burn my conscience for the choir Who's to judge
Who's insane
Watch it all, Wash away
Save us from what we've made
It doesn't die it only fades
If I can't feel there isn't pain
Another day it's all the same
I always pray I never change
It seems to me we're all to blame
Get your matches, no more rain

Burn this fucking World today I see the streets burn, Every time I fall asleep
I'm losing all my sanity
I can't hide from the voice that speaks inside of me I see the streets burn, Along with all my Memories,
I'm losing all my sanity,
I can't hide from the voice that speaks inside of me
