A Beautiful Sound

Geoff Moore

It's a beautiful soundThe heart of a proud man breaking
The cry of a sinner seeking truth
The beat that your heart is making
The moment that true love crashes throughIt's a beautiful sound
When the walls come crashing down
And the chains fall to the groundAnd the song we sing
Is the song of valley deep
Of the lost tomorrow found
It's a beautiful soundThe hope that a dreamer whispers
The life in the laughter of a child
The silence that all inspires
In the shadow of love that's strong and wild
It's a beautiful soundIt's a beautiful sound
When the walls come crashing down
And the chains fall to the groundAnd the song we sing
Is the song of valley deep
Of the lost tomorrow found
It's a beautiful soundAnd it's a beautiful sound
When the walls come crashing down
And the chains fall to the groundAnd the song we sing
Is a song of valley deep
Of the lost tomorrow foundAnd it's a beautiful sound
It's a beautiful sound
It's a beautiful soundTo let freedom reign
In the hearts of valley deep
Of the lost tomorrow found
Yeah, it's a beautiful soundThe heart of a proud man breaking
The moment for true love crashes through
It's a beautiful sound
