

Do You Recall

Royal Wood

I can't recall just what was said
I won't bring back the words that led to
The breaking down and trails of dead
I cannot recall I think I had a sweater on
 Maybe just a blanket to keep me
 Warm when all the blood was gone
I cannot recall Well I see no reason here I'm sleeping light
 And I see no reason alone at night
 Well I find no answers here my bed is cold
 Well I find no answers here
Do you? I can't recall what broke the thread
 I won't bring back the pull that led to
 The tearing down of all ahead
I cannot recall Well I see no reason here the fear resides
 And I see no reason here across the line
 Well I find no answers here a tale untold
 Well I find no answers here
Do you? Well do you recall?
 What made us fall?
 Was there noise at all?
 Oh do you recall?
