Looming Moon

Secret & Whisper

We are spending
All our time away
From one another
We are coming
To a tender age
Of miracles and robbersWe try to live a life
Respecting all the animals
Like wind
Behind the grass in sway
Asleep at certain times of dayDon't turn away
Looming moon
You'll have
Your revenge very soon
Don't turn away
From what you love
Soon you'll be finding
It's much too toughI have thought of sharing
All these different feelings
From under covers
May we all turn into the leaves
That crack and break apart
And I'm anxious
To relieve my mind
From desperate thoughts
I hope you remember me always
