

Saint Cecilia

Foo Fighters

There ain't no secrets anymore
My name's been hanging on the hook outside your door
Just an old eyesore I got this feeling, I can't keep it down anymore
Bring me some healing
Saint Cecilia, carry me home
To your house, of, broken, bones You're out of sight, I'm out of mind
Been sitting watch your pictures drying on the line
Just a game of mine I got this feeling, I can't keep it down anymore
Bring me some healing
Saint Cecilia, carry me home
To your house, of, broken, bones I know no matter what I say
Days will come and go
No matter what I say
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days, go, by I know no matter what I say
Days will come and go
No matter what I say
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days, go, by I got this feeling, I can't keep it down anymore
Bring me some healing
Saint Cecilia, carry me home
To your house, of, broken, bones I know no matter what I say
Days will come and go
No matter what I say
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days, go, by I know no matter what I say
Days will come and go
No matter what I say
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days, go, by I know no matter what I say (Saint Cecilia)
Days will come and go
No matter what I say (Saint Cecilia)
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days, go, by I know no matter what I say (Saint Cecilia)

Days will come and go
No matter what I say (Saint Cecilia)
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days, go, by...
