

Live Fast. Die Young.

Anchor & Braille

Turn down the night
Take off your cool
Take off your cool
Like Vegas strip lights
We dance on the ceiling
Dance on the ceiling
Oh, what a wicked game you play
Oh, when you know I want you
I want you to stayLive fast die young
You and me were born to live fast and die young
Live fast die young
Dance until we both just fall in love
Live fast die young
You and me were born to live fast and die young
Stay awake to see the midnight sun
Live fast, die young
Watch as we fade
Into the darkness
Into the distance
Look what we've made
A conscious existenceLive fast die young
You and me were born to live fast and die young
Live fast die young
Dance until we both just fall in love
Live fast die young
You and me were born to live fast and die young
Stay awake to see the midnight sun
Live fast, die young
Distance, distance, distance
(Live fast die young)
Distance
(You know I want you)
Distance, distance, distance
(Live fast die young)
Distance
(You know I want you)
Distance, distance, distance
Distance, distanceLive fast die young
You and me were born to live fast and die young

Live fast die young
Dance until we both just fall in love
Live fast die young
You and me were born to live fast and die young
Stay awake to see the midnight sun
Live fast, die young
