Blues At Midnight

B.B. King

When that midnight hour went chiming

I was in my room alone

Yes, when that midnight hour was chiming

I was in my room aloneYes, and when I came home this evening

I found my baby goneOh, I laid my head on my pillow

I gazed up at the stars up above

Yes, I laid my head on my pillow

Yes, looking up at the stars aboveI tell you it's a miserable feeling

Oh, when you lose the one you loveOh, I get the blues at midnight

Oh, there's one thing I can't describe

Oh, I get the blues at midnight

Oh, there's one thing I can't describe Yes, and when you look at your baby's picture

Oh, the tears will come from your eyes
