

Cain

Tiamat

I gave you my love
Though crystalized
I sent you a rose with nevermore
    So many years
    So many hours
And only thistles on my shore
    For all that it's worth
    Is the blood of divinities
The blood on my handsAnd all that is lostSound or unsound
    Only bonds between you and meIf I go will you follow
        Me trough the cracks and hollows
        And I would be your Cain
    If you would be here nowThe Mother-of-Pearl
Handcrafted by GodYou're the tower they built to reach the sky
        A White Falcon beauty
    My mark on your skinFollow me down the stairs when we die
        Your soul is in heaven
        Your body in hell
    It doesn't matter much to me
        In the night of the unborn
        Sound or obscene
Only bonds between you and meIf I go will you followMe trough the cracks and hollows
        And I would be your Cain
    If you would be here nowBlessed be our Lady Nuit
        Guide us to Ra-Hoor-Khuit
        In your night we find shelter
        Before the Helter Skelter
