

He'll Arrive (coming Back)

Yolanda Adams

Jesus is coming back
Time to make up for all you lack
Neither you nor I know the day
Or the time He'll arrive, He'll arrive
There are things that seem right in your mind
Till the time in life when things must change, yeah
Will you sacrifice a little of your time to get right?
Now is the time to get it right
Jesus is coming back
Time to make up for all you lack
Neither you nor I know the day
Or the time He'll arrive, He'll arrive
He's coming like a thief in the night for your life
And He'll catch you off guard if your heart ain't right
Don't you hesitate
The longer that you wait it may be too late
And you don't want it to end that way
Jesus is coming back
Time to make up for all you lack
Neither you nor I know the day
Or the time He'll arrive, He'll arrive
Ooh, get your [arms spread out]
He's coming back, yes He is [Incomprehensible]Ooh, get right, get right
Jesus is coming back
Time to make up for all you lack
Neither you nor I know the day
Or the time He'll arrive, He'll arrive
Jesus is coming back
Time to make up for all you lack
Neither you nor I know the day
Or the time He'll arrive, He'll arrive
Jesus is coming back
Time to make up for all you lack
Neither you nor I know the day
Or the time He'll arrive, He'll arrive
