

Deceivers

I Prevail

[Intro]

I was so wrong to believe all of you,
Every time I open my eyes,
I see the darkness come through (the darkness come through).[Verse 1]

I see the world through the undertow,
These anchors of hope, they drag me down below.

Put my faith in ones who promised change,

But where has it gotten me?

A broken dreamer,

From a, corrupted preacher.

A vagabond, without a home,

I've been cursed to wander,

All alone.[Chorus]

Cause I've been buried alive,

I've been buried!

But I still have hope inside,

Yeah-ah-ah-ah-ah.

I was so wrong to believe all of you,

Every time I open my eyes,

I see the darkness come through (the darkness come through).

If that's what's left of me to live my life aimlessly,

I'll search for a light a way to fight until the world collapses on me,

Collapses on me.[Verse 2]

What good comes from the hands of a thief,

The words of a beggar, the mind of a coward,

The heart of a sinner?

The hands dug the grave and the words threw me in,

The minds still caved shut, but my hearts still beating.[Chorus]

Cause I've been buried alive,

I've been buried!

But I still have hope inside,

Yeah-ah-ah-ah-ah.

I was so wrong to believe all of you,

Every time I open my eyes,

I see the darkness come through (the darkness come through).

If that's what's left of me to live my life aimlessly,

I'll search for a light a way to fight until the world collapses on me,

Collapses on me.[Bridge]

Collapses on me.

(Collapses on...)

Collapses on me.[Outro]

Is this it?

Have I spent, a lifetime of regret,

Not knowing, what I want,

Giving up all of my thoughts.

But I've changed, who I am,

I'll start over again.

Change my ways, change my life,

I am finally alive.Is this it?

Have I spent, a lifetime of regret,

Not knowing, what I want,

Giving up all of my thoughts.

But I've changed, who I am,

I'll start over again.

Change my ways, change my life,

I am finally alive.Is this it?

Have I spent, a lifetime of regret,

Not knowing, what I want,

Giving up all of my thoughts.

But I've changed, who I am,

I'll start over again.

Change my ways, change my life,

I am finally alive,

I am finally alive,

I am finally alive.
