

Expressions Of Flesh

Echoes of Eternity

If we are eternal souls why should we fear death?

Beings of eternity expressed in the flesh

From dust we are born, to dust we regress

Souls of infinity expressed in the fleshSource of all creation within your spirit lies

Sings an eternal song, a hymn that never dies

Not created nor destroyed, the end is not the end

When you leave this mortal form life begins againLife begins again, the end is not the end

Life begins again, the end is not the end

Life begins again, the end is not the end

AgainSource of all creation within your spirit lies

Sings an eternal song, a hymn that never dies
