

Faith In God (Album Version)

Bad Religion

[Chorus]

It's all right to have faith in God
But when you bend to their rules and their fucking lies
That's when I start to have pity on you You're living on a mound of dirt
But you can't explain your reason for existence
So you blame it on God So much hatred in this world and you can't decide
Who's pulling the strings
So you figure it's God Your whole life foreshadows death
And you finally realize you don't want to die alone
So you'll always have God [Chorus: x2] There's people in the world today
Who say they're Jewish, Christian, and such
They're all ignorant fools They'll tell you you can't have your own way
Unless you pay money and dedicate your life
Or you'll be damned in Hell Don't be feeble like all of them
You have your own brain full of thoughts and choices
So use it; don't let them use you [Chorus]

Songwriters

GRAFFIN, GREG Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>