

Lady of the Flowers

Placebo

Excuse me, I apologize
He likes your attitude, he tries it on for size
He spends the afternoon between your thighs
How's that for gratitude? I apologizeIt seemed to last for hours
It seemed to last for days
This lady of the flowers
And her hypnotic gazeExcuse me, I apologize
She's got vacuum cleaner eyes, suck you in
She's got magazines, filled with pear pies
Excuse me, I apologizeIt seemed to last for hours
It seemed to last for days
This lady of the flowers
And her hypnotic gazeShe wears her tears on her blouse
Confused and racked with self-doubt
She stole the keys to my house
And then she locked herself outExcuse me, I apologize
He likes your attitude, he tries it on for size
He spends the afternoon between your thighs
How's that for gratitude? I apologizeIt seemed to last for hours
It seemed to last for days
This lady of the flowers
Her electronic hazeShe wears her tears on her blouse
Confused and racked with self-doubt
She stole the keys to my house
And then she locked herself outShe stole the keys to my house
And then she locked herself out
She lays me down, she lays me
