

Louise

Taylor Hawkins & The Coattail Riders

Woke up in my head
Good times never end
With bad back to bend
Close my eyes just in time Hands that I won't shake
Bones that I can't break
It takes time to change
Fall in line, one more time Louise, it's me
I'm a dead man walking down your street
Louise, it's me
I'm a dead man walking down your street Climbing up your walls
(I'm not your acrobat)
Diggin' in your holes
(I'm not your sewer rat)
Falling down your stairs
Pull my light one more time Louise, it's me
I'm a dead man walking down your street
Louise, it's me
I'm a dead man walking down your street Louise, it's me
I'm a dead man walking down your street
Louise, it's me
I'm a dead man walking down your street Louise, it's me
I'm a dead man walking down your street
Louise, it's me
I'm a dead man walking down your street It takes time to change
