Louise

Taylor Hawkins & The Coattail Riders

Woke up in my head

Good times never end

With bad back to bend

Close my eyes just in timeHands that I won't shake

Bones that I can't break

It takes time to change

Fall in line, one more timeLouise, it's me

I'm a dead man walking down your street

Louise, it's me

I'm a dead man walking down your streetClimbing up your walls

(I'm not your acrobat)

Diggin' in your holes

(I'm not your sewer rat)

Falling down your stairs

Pull my light one more timeLouise, it's me

I'm a dead man walking down your street

Louise, it's me

I'm a dead man walking down your streetLouise, it's me

I'm a dead man walking down your street

Louise, it's me

I'm a dead man walking down your streetLouise, it's me

I'm a dead man walking down your street

Louise, it's me

I'm a dead man walking down your streetIt takes time to change
