

The Good Kind

Thomas White

Do you wanna runaway together
I would say it was your best line... ever
 Too bad I fell for it
 And I walked alone
 Waiting for you to come along
 Take my tortured heart by the hand
 And write me offDo you know I cry
 Do you know I die
 Do you know I cry
And It's not the good kindOh you forced me to become strong
 When I just craved being weak
 And you think you know
 And I would like to think so
 But do you know that when you go
 I fall apartDo you know I cry
 Do you know I die
 Do you know I cry
And It's not the good kindNo you're not the good kindI'm tired of hiding
 Behind these lying eyes
 How I'm tired of this smile
 That even I don't recognizeDo you know I cry
 Do you know I die
 Do you know I cry
And It's not the good kindDo you know I cry
 Do you know I die
 Do you know I cry
And It's not the good kindNo your not the good kind x2Do You know I cry
