

Battle

House of Lords

When you see 'em coming,
Ready to attack,
What you feel is numbing,
No way of turning back. When you hear the order,
Nothing left to do,
Cross the final border,
And pray you make it through. Think about what could've been,
And if it's goingna be...(Chorus)
In a world torn apart,
You'll prove what you're made of
Bless every step you take.
In to in to battle
In to in to battle! When you feel the fire,
When your body crawls,
Tough you're sick and tired,
And you're about to fall. Think about what could've been,
And if it's goingna be...(Chorus)
In a world torn apart,
You'll prove what you're made of
Bless every step you take...
In a nightmare awake,
Feels like hell and for heaven's sake,
Find your way back someday, someday...
In to in to battle
In to in to battle! (Guitar solo)(Chorus)
In a world torn apart,
You'll prove what you're made of
Bless every step you take...
In a nightmare awake,
Feels like hell and for heaven's sake,
Find your way back someday, someday...
In to in to battle
In to in to battle!
In to in to battle In to in to battle
In to in to battle!
In to in to battle
Battle!!
