

Out of the Blue

Aaron Pritchett

Man I needed this. Check another one off the bucket list trips, shake off the time clock crazy. Take it slow, layin' low. Blow a little smoke. Hazy, Gettin' all steel drum lazy. Sand on the bottom of my beer can yeah the only plan is to have no plan at all. That all changed when she came into view, she got that needle skippin' out of the groove.

Out of the Blue. Like the blue jeans she slipped out of under the palm trees. I got a blue bottle of blue chair rum, kickin' back catchin' a beach front buzz. While I'm watchin' her spalshin' in the bright blue water, like a burning blue flame couldn't get any hotter. Oh, what her blue eyes are makin' me wanna do, tonight under that blue moon, and the best things come out of the blue.

Yeah I could get used to this. No way in hell that I would ever miss the land locked life one minute. I mean just look at her, no doubt at all it would all be worth the cost of a one way ticket. Sand on the bottom of my beer can, where the only plan is to have no plan at all. Everything changed when she came into view, she got that needle skippin' out of the groove.

Out of the Blue. Like the blue jeans she slipped out of under the palm trees. I got a blue bottle of blue chair rum, kickin' back catchin' a beach front buzz. While I'm watchin' her spalshin' in the bright blue water, like a burning blue flame couldn't get any hotter. Oh, what her blue eyes are makin' me wanna do, tonight under that blue moon, and the best things come out of the blue.

Out of the Blue. Like the blue jeans she slipped out of under the palm trees. I got a blue bottle of blue chair rum, kickin' back catchin' a beach front buzz. While I'm watchin' her spalshin' in the bright blue water, like a burning blue flame couldn't get any hotter. Oh, what her blue eyes are makin' me wanna do, tonight under that blue moon, and the best things come out of the blue. Man the best things, yeah the best things come out of the blue. Yeah they do.
