

Sugar Sweet

Alyssa Bernal

 Youre sugar sweet
 I know that when our eyes meet
 And something melts inside
 Theres a feeling I cannot hide
 And then it all turns upside down
You like to turn things around, and it gets to meEvery time our eyes meet
 I know youre sugar sweetWe were sitting at our favorite table
 With Alyssa, Aaron, Jojo
 Waiting for our number, on the Westside of San Antonio
 Hadnt told you, but I really tried to
 I came close but something came up
But this time is the only time left to sayYoure sugar sweet
 I know that when our eyes meet
 And something melts inside
 Theres a feeling I cannot hide
 And then it all turns upside down
You like to turn things around, and it gets to meJust hold on
 I wont be long
 And if Im weak
Will you be strong?Youre sugar sweet
 I know that when our eyes meet
 And something melts inside
 Theres a feeling I cannot hide
 And then it all turns upside down
You like to turn things around, and it gets to meEvery time our eyes meet
 Youre sugar sweet
