Sugar Sweet

Alyssa Bernal

Youre sugar sweet
I know that when our eyes meet
And something melts inside
Theres a feeling I cannot hide
And then it all turns upside down

You like to turn things around, and it gets to meEvery time our eyes meet I know youre sugar sweetWe were sitting at our favorite table

With Alyssa, Aaron, Jojo

Waiting for our number, on the Westside of San Antonio
Hadnt told you, but I really tried to
I came close but something came up

But this time is the only time left to sayYoure sugar sweet

I know that when our eyes meet
And something melts inside
Theres a feeling I cannot hide
And then it all turns upside down

You like to turn things around, and it gets to meJust hold on

I wont be long And if Im weak

Will you be strong?Youre sugar sweet
I know that when our eyes meet
And something melts inside
Theres a feeling I cannot hide
And then it all turns upside down

You like to turn things around, and it gets to meEvery time our eyes meet Youre sugar sweet
