Monsters

Ghoti Hook

I'm walking through the forest tonight
And I feel a load of shame
I feel the breeze it's blowing tonight
And it blows my shame away
It blows it all away
I hear the monsters they're screaming tonight
They're hiding in the dark
I feel the breeze it's blowing tonight
And it blows them all away
It blows them all awayI feel my fear it's heavy tonight
And it's holding my head down
I feel the breeze it's blowing tonight
And it blows my fear away
It blows it all away
I hear a cry alone in the dark
And I search from whence it came
I find the cry is coming from me
And it blows my pride away
It blows it all awayI'm walking through the forest tonight
And I feel a load of shame
I feel the breeze it's blowing tonight
And it blows my shame away
It blows it all away
I hear the monsters they're screaming tonight
They're hiding in the dark
I feel the breeze it's blowing tonight
And it blows them all away
It blows them all away
