Hollow

Godsmack

One more stop then I could fall away
If it happened would it matter
I can't tell if I should go or stay
Same old picture feels so hollow
How can anybody know what's best for me
Another page I turn in shame
And my decisions brought me to my knees
I needed someone to blame

I feel so hollow
I feel so hollow

Time to do what's best for me I believe I can change

Once upon a time in broken dreams
Reflections that I can't face
So hold your breath and make a wish for me
Take me to a better place
Time always seems to be passing by
It never waits for me
If I could do it all one more time
I wouldn't change a thing

I feel so hollow (feel so hollow) x4

Time to do what's best for me I believe I can change
