Forgiveness Is Murder

I Killed the Prom Queen

Remember back when we were so close
Remember when we had all of this
Although we aren't close anymore
I will always remember youChild hood reminders are forever
Plaguing my mind to function
This is a time are forgotten
Yesterday, yesterdayForgiveness is denied
Saturday morning, cold weather
Freezing me, freezing me to death
Realizing that nothing is leftSaturday morning cold weather
Freezing me to death
Nothing it left, yeahRealizing that nothing is left
Realizing nothing is left
You have failed me for too long
You have failed me for too longAs your smile is broken down
You're smile is so broken away
You're crying eyes are wiped away dry
I know my weakness is your whispered lies
You are lying to me againAs your smile is broken down
You're smile is so broken away
You're crying eyes are wiped away dry
I know my weakness is your whispered lies
You are lying to me againRemember, remember me
Me, remember me, me
Remember me
