

The Prayer of Esther

Luke Spehar

The prayer of Esther

Though I walk in to the dark alone, I walk by faith alone, and see.

I need not the light of day if you remain in me.

Though the road is very narrow, doom awaits on either side as i pass.

If straight I will stumble, but your right hand holds me fast.

Chorus:

Farther you at all I have but you are all i need, please help me bear there pain for the sake of your name. And my heart soul be glad, in the end your I all I have.

My soul once but slowly slip away into shades of gray nearly black, but lord in your mercy, you have never shown your back, all my selfishness and pride, all the turns I try to hide from your eyes. Your lo e alway knew me your love saw right through my disguise

Chorus:

Without life after death no memory can remain

Making all my desires, my pain my pleasures all in vain

If I spend my whole life making my name known from pole to pole

What good would it be To gain the whole world if I loss my soul
