

No Trust

Kevin Gates

I can't even trust my heat, 'cause sometimes that bitch jams
And everybody that I meet swear that they gon' hold it down
And every bitch I thought I loved took my heart and went crash
And every time I was away, she had dealings with the past

That's exactly why

I ain't trustin' no, no, no, no, no ho

I ain't trustin' no, no, no, no, no ho

I ain't trustin' no, no, no, no, no ho

I ain't trustin' no, no, no, no, no ho

Millimeter time, three stripe Adidas time

Believe in God, I just beat a crime

What I'm doin', I won't feed a dime

Mindin' my business in my leisure time

Heart cold, this time I'm keepin' mine

Keepin' mine, ayo, keepin' mine

Exotic, fine, sexy creature

Chocolate Easter Bunny, it ain't Easter time

Fiji water, sip it like your wine

See sativa, he just holla...

Kevin Gates, all the way up

Like it's money just to hit a line

Flashback, take it back a while

Bitch tellin' me to get a job

Now she askin' can she have a job

Askin' that to someone who enjoyed

Workin' for myself, I'm unemployed

Never fire, actin' with a rod

Big dog status on the yard

Bought a car to practice in a car

They grabbin' shit, my back against the wall

I love you, never had to get involved

Pull it off in traffic if I get the call

I just wanna ball, I said don't we all?

I can't even trust my heat, 'cause sometimes that bitch jams
And everybody that I meet swear that they gon' hold it down
And every bitch I thought I loved took my heart and went crash
And every time I was away, she had dealings with the past

That's exactly why

I ain't trustin' no, no, no, no, no ho

I ain't trustin' no, no, no, no, no ho

I ain't trustin' no, no, no, no, no ho

I ain't trustin' no, no, no, no, no ho
