Stop

Juliette Reilly

You call to say think you've had enough
You're not who I thought you would be at all
I played it cool, unloving you
Days pass so fast, now I can't get it back
But I'm letting go of screaming ghosts
So just stop
Stop trying to bring me down
I've had enough of this now
I wouldn't wanna be anybody else
So just stop
Stop telling me I'm nothing
Just watch me spread my wings
And fly, alone tonight, and I'm doing just fine
I lost one night when you showed up again
I'm not the type to easily forget
You pull me in, it's oxygen
But now you see I've got much thicker skin
And I'm letting go of my screaming ghost
So just stop
Stop trying to bring me down
I've had enough of this now
I wouldn't wanna be anybody else
So just stop
Stop telling me I'm nothing
Just watch me spread my wings
And fly, alone tonight, and I'm doing just fine
Yeah I'm doing just fine
So just stop
My room alone 4:30 AM
The voices in my head tell me I can't
Be strong, they're wrong, just watch me shine
I'm doing fine
So just stop
Stop trying to bring me down
I've had enough of this now
I wouldn't wanna be anybody else
So just stop
Stop telling me I'm nothing
Just watch me spread my wings

And fly, alone tonight, and I'm doing just fine
Yeah I'm doing just fine
Yeah I'm doing just fine
Yeah I'm doing just fine
So just stop
