

Flies

The Black Dahlia Murder

Down, start digging down your throat
Another string of lies is born
You must exemplify perfection
Bronzing a broken life of shit
You filthy liar
Septic tongue, shit eating grin
Slow internal suicide
An inch within a trigger's pull again
This disease it is your mainstay
It wears its wires within me
Tender tissues scraped away
Of secrets etched in nameless graves
The smell of vomit hangs in the air tonight
Blush, eyeliner, lipstick it's all alright tonight
You filthy liar
Septic tongue, shit eating grin
Love me with your yellowed smile
My flies are hungry for your kiss
Poison me my darling
Graves grow deeper with each passing day
This appalling love bask in your putrid revelry

Beauty lost in between the lashes of sick drunken eye
Like a fool, you have believed
Life of shame
You have fallen completely beneath
And when the curtains finally part
You'll see that everyone is laughing
I am weakness just like you
I'll bury you before you're dead
Cockroach come crawling home, crawl
Slithering through this world of sculpted shit
So thrust those fingers deep my child
It is your burden and your gift
You filthy liar
Septic tongue, shit eating grin
Slow internal suicide
An inch within a trigger's pull again
Poison me my darling

Graves grow deeper with each passing day
This appalling love bask in your putrid revelry
