

Houdini

Plastique Noir

I wait at the table
And hold hands with weeping strangers
    Wait for you
        To join the group
        The tambourine jingle-jangles
        The medium roams and rambles
            Not taken in
            I break the circle
            I want this man
            To go away now
                With a kiss
                I'd pass the key
                And feel your tongue
                Teasing and receiving
                    With your spit
                    Still on my lip
                    You hit the water
                    Him and I in the room
                    To prove you are with us too
He's using code that only you and I know
    This is no trick of his
        This is your magic
        I'd catch the cues
            Watchin' you
            Hopin' you'd do somethin' wrong
Everybody thinks you'll never make it
    But every time
        You escape
        Rosabel, believe
        Not even eternity
        Can hold Houdini
        Rosabel, believe
        Through the glass
I'd watch you breathe
    (Not even eternity)
    Bound and drowned
And paler than you've ever been
    (Will hold Houdini)
        With your life

The only thing in my mind
We pull you from the water
Houdini
You
(Houdini)
And I
And Rosabel believe
