

Avalanche (Edit)

EMM

I need a little bit of therapy
Mother-f_ckers been watching me
Cutting down all the s_it I do
Doesn't matter what, it's never enough for you
All I wanted was to save the world
But nobody wants super girl
They keep telling me it's too late
But I'd rather fail then live asleep awake So let them say whatever they want
Let them say whatever they like
So let them walk a mile in these shoes
See how well they survive In the middle of the avalanche
I stand and lift my hands
I won't go down
I won't go down I believe in my destiny,
No matter what they keep throwing at me
Been calling me crazy all my life
It's cause of crazy I'm alive
And I know they're looking at me,
Waiting for me to come home saying
"Oh EMM, you should have known Better then to go down that dream road." So let them say whatever they want,
Let them say whatever they like
Can't nobody make or break me
I'm f_cking wild One day,
I'll come back to life
That day
I will stand alive
That day
I will radiate
Today
I refuse to break
