Lonely Heart

Duncan Powell

Heartbeat pounding so hard
It keeps me wide awake at night
I wait alone in the dark for you
To make the moment right
If I could only show you all that might be lost
Then you would never wonder what the secret was
And this is what I?d tell you
The lonely heart you see tonight
Will not give up without a fight
And I?m never gonna let it fade away
Never gonna let it fade away
Oh, you can look in my eyes
And see that you?re the only one
I would break down and cry
If you became the lonely one
I?d rather play the fool and try to hold a star

Than never know if you were gonna break my heart
And I can see it shining
The lonely heart you see tonight
Will not give up without a fight
And I?m never gonna let it fade away
Never gonna let it fade away
No matter what I say to make you understand
It?s all up to you to take the future in your hands
So please don?t keep me waiting
The lonely heart you see tonight
Will not give up without a fight
And I?m never gonna let it fade away
Never gonna let it fade away
And I?m never gonna let it fade away
Never gonna let it fade away
