

Broccoli

McFly

Everything was going just the way I planned
The Broccoli was done
She doesn't know that I'm a virgin in the kitchen
'Cause it's normally my mum But then she called me
And that's when
She said to me
She wasn't comin' 'round for tea I should have known much better
But it's so hard, I can't forget her
She keeps playin' me around
But I'm trying so hard to impress her
And she puts me under so much pressure
And I just wanted her to let me know, she cares Blowin' out the candles now
If that's the way she treats me, I'm a fool
And everyone will tease me now
When rumors start to spread around the school Yeah, yeah
They say that I'm a loser
But that girls so cruel
But I keep feeding her the fuse I should have known much better
But it's so hard I can't forget her
She keeps playin' me around
But I'm trying so hard to impress her
She puts me under so much pressure
And I just wanted her to let me know, she cares I know she cares
(I know she cares)
Yeah, she cares!
She cares, she cares, she cares
She cares, she cares I should have known much better
But it's so hard I can't forget her
And she keeps playin' me around
But I'm trying so hard to impress her
She puts me under so much pressure
And I just wanted her to let me know Yeah, I should have known much better
But it's so hard I can't forget her
And she keeps playin' me around
But I'm trying to impress her
She puts me under so much pressure
And I just wanted her to let me know, she cares
