Twelve Ounce

Home Town Hero

You were the one that swore that it would never come to this
You were the one that swore your most sacred gift was a kiss
I was the one who laughed out loud at your attempt to try
Our love still sits waiting as we both wonder whyI'm in your bedroom sipping on soda, yeah
Hoping to God that you might notice, yeah
Yeah yeah
I'm in your bedroom sipping on soda, yeahYou were the one that swore that it would never come to this
You were the one that swore your most sacred gift was a kiss
I was the one who laughed out loud at your attempt to try
Our love still sits waiting as we both wonder whyI'm in your bedroom sipping on soda, yeah
Hoping to God that you might notice, yeahHelp me save you
Won't you save me?
Help me save you
Won't you save me?I thought about the ways we could go
I thought about the ways we could go
I thought about, I thought about
I thought about the ways we could goI'm in your bedroom sipping on soda, yeah
Hoping to God that you might notice, yeah
Yeah yeah
I'm in your bedroom sipping on soda
