So Ordinary

Ryan Star

I'm breaking out,
It's a time like this that makes you want to die.
I'm breaking out,
Of this modern day belief of not to try.
And I'm dying to be,
What you're seeing in me.

Stop trying to be so ordinary,
Be strong and be brave, and begin your story.
Cause it's all that you've got
When you make it in this world.

I'm breaking out
It's a tidal wave of everything to come.
I'm breaking out,
So I'll ride the wave and see what I've become.
And I'm dying to be,
What you're seeing in me.

Stop trying to be so ordinary,
Be strong and be brave, and begin your story.
Cause it's all that you've got
When you make it in this world.

And you'll forget, just how to be.
And you'll regret, cause now I'm free.
All that you need,
Is all that you are.

Stop trying to be so ordinary,
Be strong and be brave, and begin your story.
Cause it's all that you've got
When you make it in this world
