

Act Up

Ninety Pound Wuss

well, i don't wanna live, but i don't wanna die.
bearing my cross while listening to lies.
walking through life, sitting on a fence.
my testimony seems so small, miniscual, and dence.
why was i chosen when i'm one big crutch?
why was i chosen when i think it's too much.
why was i chosen when i'm one big crutch?
why was i chosen when i think it's too much. act up!
i don't wanna be the one who turns away, no.
i don't wanna be like Judas who betrayed. act up!
there's just one thing that i wanna ask,
"Jesus in me, Jesus act up fast."
well, i can't stand the thorns in my side.
at least they keep me humble, while they tear at my sides.
i feel like a chicken, the one who wimped out.
hast the cock crowed three times or only just twice?
i'm in this malitia, through the war has been won.
acting in flesh, i must stop.
it's all done.
i'm in this militia, through the war has been won.
it's all done. act up!
i don't wanna be the one who turns away, no
i don't wanna be like Judas who betrayed.
act up! there's just one thing that i wanna ask,
"Jesus act up in me, Jesus act up fast." act up!
i don't wanna be the one who turns away,
no i don't wanna be like Judas who betrayed. act up!
there's just one thing that i wanna ask,
"Jesus act up in me, Jesus act up fast."
i would die for what i live for.
i've been doing it for years.
though sometimes i seem to compramise by living in fear.
what am i afraid of for God is on my side?
more power in his stratagies.
then dreams that i can dream to be more perfect, and precious.
i love my Lord for giving me eternity and all are justly rewards.
i don't wanna be the one who turns away, no.
i don't wanna be like Judas who betrayed. act up!

there's just one thing that i wanna ask,
"Jesus act up in me, Jesus act up fast." act up!
i don't wanna be the one who turns away, no.
i don't wanna be like Judas who betrayed. act up!
there's just one thing that i wanna ask,
"Jesus act up in me, Jesus act up fast."
