All Grown Up

The Verve Pipe

How many times have I watched you sleep?
Hoping the dreams you dreamed were sweetâ€¦
Loving you more with every breath that you would take Now every line on our kitchen door
Climbs higher than the year before
And I put another candle on your birthday cake
I want you to know that I have been blessed to see you grow
Into the one that youâ€™ve become from crawl to stand and walk to run Youâ€™re more beautiful than anyone can see
And now youâ€™re All Grown Up

I watched your school bus drive away and bring you back to me everyday
And everyday Iâ€™d see a difference in you
You were my changing photograph- give me a tear, a smile, a laugh
And if you were happy, then I was happy too
Hope you didnâ€™t see any hint of bittersweet
When I watched the wonder in your eyes on an evening full of fireflies
And I realized someday youâ€™d want to leave â€˜Cause youâ€™re all grown up Youâ€™re one youâ€™re two youâ€™re three youâ€™re four youâ€™re five youâ€™re six youâ€™re sev â€˜Cause youâ€™re all grown up, â€˜cause youâ€™re all grown up, â€˜cause youâ€™re all grown up
â€˜Cause youâ€™re all grown up
