Dispute

The Frightnrs

As I'm looking for my lover
Many things I have discovered
Games of chance
And from heartache I've recovered
Strong enough to love another
Worth the chanceDon't wanna go
But I can't unknow
What you have shown to meYes I thought you were my lover
But this thing I have discovered
Game of chance
And from heartache I've recovered
No you're not like any other circumstance
You always thought it was me
I always thought it was you
The same dispute
Now you talk just like a stranger
And I can't control my anger
What's your name
How was I too blind to see
What you been doing to me
What a shame
You always said it was me
I always knew it was you
What's the use?
