Measure 3

Matt Pond PA

Will we both be happy to stand alone
I can't see forever, where will I goI'll stop thinking, I will be ordinary
Your laughter kills me
You can't hurt me that won't matter at allSo we've stayed together despite our rows
And we're holding back so we won't explodeI'll stop thinking, I will be ordinary
Your laughter kills me
You can't hurt me that won't matter at allIt's in the stadiums
And in the biggest rooms we want to belong
I am mistaken
It's in the biggest rooms it all goes wrongSo we know more now than we'll ever know
And we're holding back so we won't explodeI'll stop thinking, I will be ordinary
Your laughter kills me
You can't hurt me that won't matter at allIt's in the stadiums
And in the biggest rooms we want to belong
I am mistaken
It's in the biggest rooms it all goes wrong
