She Didn't Have Time

Terri Clark

He said goodbye from the edge of the porch

Like she'd been some casual friend

He said, "You're better off without me

I'm not what you need", like her momma had said about himHe started the car, pulled out of the drive

Didn't waste any time lookin' back

She watched him go, thinkin' even a stranger

Would show more compassion than that She could've cried but she didn't have time

She had a baby to feed

A pink blanket to find

To rock their little one to sleep

She could've laid in bed for hours

Giving misery the power

But she didn't have timeShe got a sitter, she got a job

'Cause she had a promise to keep

Her day was a factory and evening survival

At night was exhaustion and sleepSometimes she felt life was passing her by

And watching was all she could do

Her friends said, "You gotta get outta the house

And maybe you'll meet someone new"She could've tried but she didn't have time

She had a five year old to feed

She had ballet class, piano lessons

And T-ball little league

She could've laid awake for hours

Giving lonely nights the power

But she didn't have the timeNot time where would she find the time

To trust a man again

Not time for that flat tire

In a crowded parking lot and thenNot time but yes have coffee with the man

That got her tire fixed

She was thinking, Gosh he's handsome

When he asked, "Do you have kids"? She could've lied but she didn't have time

All she said was "She's five"

He said, "I saw the car seat I love kids

Does she have your eyes?"

And they sat and talked for hours

Giving destiny it's power

She could've been afraid to fall in love that night

But she didn't have timeShe could've been afraid to fall in love that night

But she didn't have time
