Crazy Fool

East 17

If I could turn back the clock upon the wall
I'd take back those things I said to you I really didn't mean to make you sad or make you cry
I wish I could just stop and press undomoma said love is a crazy game cause noone really knows the rules and noone plays the sameguess I'm just a fool for you I guess I'm just a crazy fool guess I'm just a fool for you Lord ain't there something you can do ?funny thing is I was trying to show I care
I really didn't mean to start a fight how can I make something so right go so wrong so quick years of love just fly away over nightmoma said love is a crazy game someone gives their all and someone takes the blameguess I'm just a fool for you I guess I'm just a crazy fool
guess I'm just a fool for you Lord ain't there something you can do ?
