The Greenhorns

Don't know any other way
Yes to say, you're wasting time
And I know is kinda strange
When it was you I wanted Time to face up to the facts
That there's just no going back
And it's really such a shame
That's not how it started Oh it's written on the walls
... (On a/Of a (...) giving calls)(someone understands?)
When they say it's just a game
That's been played for nothing
But I'm getting sick and tired
Of this same old way of life
And I don't know what you want
What you want from me Oh it's written on the walls
... (On a/Of a (...) giving calls)(someone understands?)
When they say it's just a game
That's been played for nothing Don't know any other way
Yes to say, you're wasting time
And I know is kinda strange
When it was you I wanted Time to face up to the facts
That there is no going back
And it's really such a shame
That's not how it started
Oh it's written on the walls
... (On a/Of a (...) giving calls)(someone understands?)
When they say it's just a game
