

The Good Kind

Ottawa

Do you wanna runaway together
I would say it was your best line... ever
    Too bad I fell for it
    And I walked alone
    Waiting for you to come along
    Take my tortured heart by the hand
    And write me offDo you know I cry
    Do you know I die
    Do you know I cry
And It's not the good kindOh you forced me to become strong
    When I just craved being weak
    And you think you know
    And I would like to think so
    But do you know that when you go
    I fall apartDo you know I cry
    Do you know I die
    Do you know I cry
And It's not the good kindNo you're not the good kindI'm tired of hiding
    Behind these lying eyes
    How I'm tired of this smile
    That even I don't recognizeDo you know I cry
    Do you know I die
    Do you know I cry
And It's not the good kindDo you know I cry
    Do you know I die
    Do you know I cry
And It's not the good kindNo your not the good kind x2Do You know I cry
