

Reaper Man

Brand New Sin

Let me tell you something
That my old man said to me
Your lies have been piled so high
It's no surprise you don't even see
All your tricks and all your games
Are all the same
All the days we've wasted keeping you alive Waiting for
The Reaper Man
To come rip your heart out When you find the sin
And heaven's weight's on your soul
The re-emerging days of old Blinded by the men
The heavens they burn
Swallowing pride
Swallowing scorn
Sit with me here
Listen and learn
