

You I Never Knew

Nite Fields

Are you the sinner
Are you a saint
Are you the answer
Or is this fate? Hey you, I know you're inside
I'm the one that put you there
But we're the ones to pay Resigned to have met you in my mind
Resigned to have met you in my mind
You I never knew, tell me it's a crime
Resigned to have met you in my mind An interruption
A change of shape
So smudge the paper
Or skip the page Of you I seem to think of Nothing more than fun and games
Still we're the ones to pay Resigned to have met you in my mind
Resigned to have met you in my mind
You I never knew, tell me it's a crime
Resigned to have met you in my mind
