

Haunted

Six Feet Under

I hear screams, echoes of the dead
In the silence, screaming
Haunted by the dead
Listen, they're calling me to join them Rotting away, I'm decomposing
Rotting inside, slow decay I wake screaming in the middle of the night
Burning inside I'm turning cold Rotting away, I'm decomposing
Rotting inside, slow decay Skin sweating
My heart skipped a beat
Something behind me
Something I can't see Rotting away, I'm decomposing
Rotting inside, slow decay Haunted, haunted
Haunted by the dead Rotting away, I'm decomposing
Rotting inside, slow decay Silence, the screaming has stopped
My body hangs dead, swinging from a rope
In the silence
Listen, they're calling you to join them Rotting away, I'm decomposing
Rotting inside, slow decay
Rotting away, I'm decomposing
Rotting inside
