I'm Bad News, In the Best Way

blessthefall

Tell me, what did you think when you found me lost and my hope was fading Tell me, what did you say to make me feel again your voice could take me Don't let the darkness surround me lift me up, i'll let you in

I said i'm sorry and i won't forget the past regrets and now that's over i said i'm sorry you're my only one the past is gone and all that's over, not losing you

Please take me home, stay with me tonight Please take me home, i'm not losing you I said that you are the one for me
