New Beginning

Stir

I'd sing a song for you, you know I'd even change my tune
I'd pull you up when you drown in the water, baby
Jump the highest mountain, swim across the ocean blue
Could never imagine you with another, babyAm I having a breakdown? Am I going insane?
You do me then leave for another girl
I wake up every morning crying you're not thereI get the feeling that you're looking for a new beginning
You change your mind every minute
One day you want me then the next you leave, it's never-ending
I'm getting used to itDon't tell me how to get to you, to get back in your heart
You make it hard, should I even bother? Baby
My tongue is tied in two and I believe I need another drink
I know you love to watch me sink to the bottom, babyBut I'm having a breakdown, am I going insane?
You do me then leave for another girl
I wake up every morning crying you're not thereI get the feeling that you're looking for a new beginning
You change your mind every minute
One day you want me then the next you leave, it's never-ending
I'm getting used to it, I'm getting used to itI don't care what you do now
I don't care what you do nowI get the feeling that you're looking for a new beginning
You change your mind every minute
One day you want me then the next you leave, it's never-ending
I'm getting used to itYou say you want me now
But when you need me, just forget it
I'm getting used to it, I'm getting used to it
