Everything's Different Now

'til Tuesday

You know just how I feel
You know when love is real
It changes the life that you're living
And now I've found it here
It overcomes my fear
Of holding back instead of giving
But, when I hear the phone ring
Your voice pulls me in till I'm far away
It's easy 'cause every thing's different now
Every thing's different now
Seems long ago when our love was unknown
But it's just yesterday
Every thing's different now, every thing's different now
And when I look in the mirror and talk to myself
I can't pretend it's the same
Well, soon I'll say your name
And then I'll go insane
I won't understand what I'm thinking
I'll look down at my shoes
I'll wonder what I'll lose
If I feel this consciousness sinking
And we both know what that means
Returning to what we knew before
Forgetting that every thing's different now
Every thing's different now
Seems long ago when our love was unknown
But it's just yesterday
Every thing's different now, every thing's different now
And when I look in the mirror and talk to myself
I can't pretend it's the same
What we created has separated
A past we hated from what we are feeling today
'Cause every thing's different now
Every thing's different now
Seems long ago when our love was unknown
But it's just yesterday
Every thing's different now, every thing's different now
And when I look in the mirror and talk to myself
I can't pretend it's the same

'Cause every thing's different now
