

Strange Gods, Strange Altars

Sheavy

First...Do you think you've found the future
do you see your inner lie,
are you there because you're all alone?.Drinking with illusion, just like time can blur your mind take it all and leave the rest behind.Strange Gods upon strange alters,
little pieces of me and you.
Magic eyes watch you falling faster,
past the places you thought you knew.Is it me or is it something high above or far below?
Do you see it can you touch and feel?.
Far beyond tomorrow, in a place no one remembers,
does it matter if you worship the sun?.Strange Gods upon strange alters,
little pieces of me and you.
Magic eyes watch you falling faster,
past the places you thought you knew.See it all, coming down, living in you.
What is there, cannot say, you'll see it too.
Who are you, who am I, sentence of crime
Will it be, can it be, seems so inclinedBelieve me, believe me this time.
Believe it, this time.Take it all, looking back, finding you there
Was it me, was it you, why should I care?.
I can see, you can hear, what does it mean?.
look inside, see it there, all just a dream.I'm leaving, I'm leaving this time
I'm leaving, I'm leaving this timeDo you think about the future,
do you see your inner lie?
Are you there because you're all alone?.
Drinking with illusion, just like time can blur your mind take it all and leave the rest behind.Strange Gods upon strange alters, little pieces of me and you.
Magic eyes watch you falling faster, past the places you thought you knew.Strange Gods, strange alters.
