Lush

Im not interested in what you have to say
Youre just a vacant space
Other peoples lives upon which you prey
Its a permanent disgraceWhy do you think you know whats best for me?
What I should and shouldn't do
Why do you judge my history
And tell me to improve?In the confines of your mind
You think were all the same
Ive left them all behind
Though you wish I hadn'tIn finding fault in others I cant see
What you have to gain
I know that you get pleasure from
Other peoples painYoure not so perfect and I realize the scene
That youre all coming from
When you say you care I know what you mean
Youre really lyingAll the people around here
Love to hear about a fall
They all surface and disappear
In an instantIn the confines of your mind
You think were all the same
Ive left them all behind
Though you wish I hadn't
