

Sirens of the Sea

Above & Beyond

[Chorus]

I can not resist your call

I can not resist your call

The sirens of the sea Take my hand, take my hand, yeah, let's go

Follow me, follow me, yeah, follow me

To the sand, to the sand, the purest sand

Into the sea, into the sea, yeah, let's go Out beyond the water's edge,

Far out past the coral ledge,

Underneath the diamond dancing lights

Chase the world from far below, silent, sleeping indigo

Drifting down into the endless night [Chorus]

I can not resist your call

I can not resist your call

The sirens of the sea Take my hand, take my hand, yeah, take my hand

Follow me, follow me, yeah, let's go

To the sand, to the sand, the purest sand

Into the sea, into the sea, yeah, let's go Leaving reason far behind,

Nothing here is cruel or kind,

Only your desire to set me free,

Let us lie here all alone,

Worn away like river stone

Let us be the sirens of the sea! [Chorus]
